Hoofland's Column.

YOU ALL

HAVE HEARD OF

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS,

AND

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

Prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, Philadelphia.

Their introduction into this country from Germany occurred in

THEY CURED YOUR

FATHERS AND MOTHERS,

And will cure you and your children. They are entirely different from the many preparations now in the country called Bitters or Tonics. They are no tavern preparation, or any thing like one; but good, honest, reliable medicines. They are

The greatest known remedies for

Liver Complaint,
DYSPEPSIA,
Nervous Debility,
JAUNDICE,
Diseases of the Kidneys,
ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN,

and all Diseases arising from a Disordered Liver, stomach, or

IMPURITY OF THE BLOOD.

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fullness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fullness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a Lying Posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil and Great Depression of Spirits.

All these indicate diseases of the Liver or Digestive Organs, combined with impure blood.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

is entirely vegetable and contains no liquor. It is a compound of Fluid Extracts. The Roots, Herbs, and Barks from which these extracts are made, are gathered in Germany. All the medicinal virtueus are extracted from them by a scientific Chemist. These extracts are then forwarded to this country to be used expressly for the manufacture of these Bitters. There is no alcoholic substance of any kind used in compounding the Bitters, hence it is the only Bitters that can be used in cases where alcoholic stimulants are not advisable.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC

is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with PURE Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, etc. It is used for the same diseases as the Bitters, in case where some pure alcoholic stimulus is required. You will bear in mind that these remedies are entirely different from any others advertised for the cure of the diseases named, these being scientific preparations of medicinal extracts, while the others are mere decoctions of rum in some form. The TONIC is decidedly one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public. Its taste is exquisite. It is a pleasure to take it, while its life-giving, exhilarating, and medicinal qualities have caused it to be known as the greatest of all tonics.

DEBILITY.

There is no medicine equal to Hoofland's German Bitters or Tonic in cases of Debility. They impart a tone and vigor to the whole system, strengthen the appetite, cause an enjoyment of the food, enable the stomach to digest it, purify the blood, give a good, sound, healthy complexion, eradicate the yellow tinge from the eye, impart a bloom to the cheeks, and change the patient from a short-breathed, emaciated, weak, and nervous invalid, to a full-faced, stout, and vigorous person.

Weak and Delicate Children are made strong by using the Bitters or Tonic. In fact, they are Family Medicines. They can be administered with perfect safety to a child three months old, the most delicate female, or a man of ninety.

These remedies are the best

ever known and will cure all diseases resulting from bad blood. Keep your blood pure; keep your Liver in order, keep your digestive organs in a sound, healthy condition by the use of these remedies, and no diseases will ever assail you. The best men in the country recommend them. If years of honest reputation go for anything, you must try these preparations.

FROM HON. GEO. W. WOODWARD,

Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, March 16, 1867.

I find that "Hoofland's German Bitters" is not an intoxicating beverage, but is a good tonic, useful in disorders of the digestive organs, and of great benefit in cases of debility and want of nervous action in the system.

Yours Truly,
GEO. W. WOODWARD.

FROM HON. JAMES TAOMPSON.

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania.

PHILADELPHIA, April 28, 1866.

I consider "Hoofland's German Bitters" a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it.

Yours, with respect,
JAMES THOMPSON.

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

DR. JACKSON—DEAR SIR:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes. Yours, very respectfully,

J. H. KENNARD,
Eigth, below Coates Street.

CAUTION.

Hoofland's German Remedies are counterfeited. The Genuine have the signature of C. M. JACKSON on the front of the outside wrapper of each bottle, and the name of the article blown in each bottle. All others are counterfeit.

Price of the Bitters, $1 per bottle; Or, a half dozen for $5.

The tonic is put up in quart bottles.

Recollect that it is Dr. Hoofland's German Remedies that are so universally used and so highly recommended; and do not allow the Druggist to induce you to take anything else that he may say is just as good, because he makes a larger profit on it. FALL CARE OF GARDENS.

We have more than once spoken of the tendency which so often prevails among farmers to neglect proper attention to their gardens at all seasons of the year. The farm appears so much more important in the extent of its productions, and in the amount of labor required to keep it in proper condition, than the household part of the grounds. The garden is too often left to take care of itself, or left to the care of those who are unable to work it properly. In the season of planting, the comparatively trifling work that is required to make a good garden is withheld, on the plea that there is more pressing work in the field. The farmer who acts on this principle does as much injury to himself and to his friends; for nothing contributes more to the supply and the comfort of the social board than a productive garden. It may be made almost half the support of a family, and, with its small fruits, its roots and its vegetables of every description, it adds immensely to the good cheer of a country home.

On the supposition that this part of a farmer's duty has not been neglected at the proper season for raising the crops, we would remind our readers that the time is at hand when the fruits of such labor are to be cared for.—And many of our readers have no other farm than their garden, so that it stands them in hand to reap the advantage of their summer toil by carefully gathering and storing the product. The value of all kinds of vegetables depends, in a great measnre, upon the condition in which they are gathered and stored away.

Many garden roots will not require to be taken up before the close of the month, and some of them not until October, but we give these timely hints and would especially advise all who have such crops to store to have places provided for them in season, that they may not suffer by being left out too long.

After all the crops are garnered, the garden itself should be put in complete order; all weeds and useless bushes removed, and everything made ready for another season. This will both invite and facilitate labor in the Spring.—New York Sin.

AN ELEPHANT'S MEMORY.—A recent traveler in India relates a singular incident of a tame elephant that escaped during a stormy night, and rambled off to his native jungle. After two years, an elephant hunt having taken place, a considerable number of animals were trapped in an enclosure, called a keddah. It happened that one of the hunters was the keeper of the runaway elephant, and, to his surprise, he thought he recognized him among the wild herd that was captured. His companions laughed at the idea. But calling his old favorite by name, it at once came forward and showed such signs of good will that the man, thoughtless of his danger, climbed over the barrier, and the elephant kneeling to receive him, he rode away to his pickets triumphantly upon him.

HOW ABOUT IT!—If some unseen individual could pass around from house to house about ten o'clock, on a Sunday morning, he would be likely to hear a list of excuses for not attending church, something like the following:

Overslept myself. Could not dress in time. Too cold. Too hot. Too windy. Too dusty. Too wet. Too damp. Too sunny. Too cloudy. Don't feel disposed. No other time to myself. Look over my drawers. Put my papers to rights. Letters to write to my friends. Mean to take a walk. Going to take a ride. Tied to business six days in the week. No fresh air but on Sundays.—Can't breathe in church, always so full. Feel a little feverish. Feel a little chilly, Feel very lazy. Expect company to dinner. New bonnet not come home.

WHERE would the party of universal suffrage be without disfranchisement? Just figure it up: All Virginia disfranchised, 170,000 votes; all Texas, 65,000; all Mississippi, 70,000; in Missouri, 50,000; in Tennessee, 100,000; in the so-called reconstructed States, 170,000—total, 605,000. Then when they have taken this out by disfranchisement, they by negro suffrage, juggle in 750,000 making in all a difference of 1,355,000 votes. Can an election so carried be considered a fair one? Is this the voice of the people?

A DILEMMA.

Many years ago a young Universalist clergyman started westward to attend a convention of his brethren. He took the precaution to carry a vial of cayenne in his pocket, to sprinkle his food with, as a preventive to fever and ague. The convention met, and at dinner a tall Hoosier observed the parson as he seasoned his meat, and addressed him thus.

"Stranger, I'll thank you for a leetle o' that 'ere red salt, for I'm kind o'cur'ous to try it."

The Hoosier took the proffered vial, and feeling himself proof against any quantity of raw whisky, thought that he could stand the "red salt" with impunity, and accordingly sprinkled a junk of beef rather bountifully with it, and forthwith introduced it into his capacious mouth. It soon began to take effect. He shut his eyes and his features began to writhe, denoting a very inharmonious condition physically. Finally he could stand it no longer. He opened his mouth and screamed "fire!"

"Take a drink of cold water from the jug," said the parson.

"Will that put it out?" asked the martyr, suiting the action to the word.

In a short time the unfortunate man began to recover, and turning to the parson, his eyes still swimming in water, exclaimed:

"Stranger, you call yourself a 'Varsellist, I believe?"

"I do," mildly answered the parson.

"Wall, I want to know if you think it is consistent with your belief to go about with hellfire in your breeches pocket?"

THINGS THAT I HAVE SEEN.

I have seen a farmer build a house so large that the sheriff turned him out of doors.

I have seen a young man sell a good farm, turn merchant and die in an insane asylum.

I have seen a farmer travel about so much, that there was nothing at home worth looking after.

I have seen a rich man's son begin where his father left off, and end where his father began—pennyless.

I have seen a young girl marry a young man of dissolute habits, and repent of it as long as she lived.

I have seen the extravagance and folly of children, bring their parents to poverty and want, and themselves to disgrace.

I have seen a prudent, industrious wife, retrieve the fortunes of a family, when her husband pulled at the other end of the rope.

I have seen a young man who despised the counsel of the wise and advice of the good, and end his career in poverty and wretchedness.

I have seen a man spend more in folly than would support his family in comfort and independence.

I have seen a man depart from the truth, when candor and veracity would have served him a much better purpose.

I have seen a man engage in a law suit about a trifling affair that cost him more in the end, than would have roofed all the buildings on his farm.

The ladies of Scranton are not very particular what they pnt in their stockings—keeping their souls there—and are so awkward that they often "get their foot in it."—Register.

A TOUGH FOG STORY.—A very heavy fog once visited an Eastern State, which we think somewhat beats the fog of London. A youug man was sent out to a meadow to nail a few courses of shingles on a barn, the roof of which was nearly finished. "At dinner," continued the farmer, who is responsible for the story "the fellow comes up and sez:"

"That's a mighty long barn of yourn."

"Not very long," sez I.

"Well sez he, "I've been to work all this forenoon, and have not got one course laid yet."

"Well," sez I, "you'er a lazy fellow; that's all I have got to say."

"So after dinner I went down to see what he had been about, and I'll be thundered if he hadn't shingled out more than a hundred feet right out on the fog."

LIFE.—For every one life has some blessing—some cup that is not mixed with bitterness. At every heart there is some fount of pure waters and all men at some time or other taste their sweetness. Who is he that has not found on his path of life some fragrant rose-bush, scenting all the air with its sweet perfume?

AN irritable man, having been disappointed in his boots, threatened to eat the shoemaker, but compromised by drinking a cobbler.

HORSES IN BATTLE.

The extent to which a charger can apprehend the perils of a battle field may be easily underrated by one who confines his observation to horses still carrying their riders; for, as long as a troop horse in action feels the weight and hand of a master his deep trust in man keeps him seemingly free from great terror, and he goes through the fight, unless wounded, as though it were a field day at home; but the moment that death or a disabling wound deprives him of his rider, he seems at once to know what a battle is—to perceive its real dangers with the clearness of a human being, and to be agonized with horror at the fate he may incur for want of a hand to guide him.

Careless of the mere thunder of guns, he shows plainly enough that he more or less knows the dread accent that is used by missiles of war while cutting their way through the air, for as often as these sounds disclose to him the near passage of bullet or round shot, he shrinks and cringes. His eyeballs protrude. Wild with fright, he still does not most commonly gallop home into camp. His instinct seems rather to tell him, that what safety, if any, there is for him must be found in ranks, and he rushes at the first squadron he can find, urging piteously, yet with violence, that he, too, by right, is a troop horse—that he, too, is willing to charge—but not to be left behind—that he must and he will "fall in." Sometimes a riderless charger thus bent on aligning with his fellows, will not be content to range himself on the flank of the line, but dart at some point in the squadron which he seemingly judges to be his own rightful place and strive to force himself in.

Riding, as it is usual for the commander of a regiment to do, some way in advance of his regiment, Lord Geo. Paget was especially tormented and pressed by the riderless horses which chose to turn round and align with him. At one time there were three or four horses advancing close abreast of him on one side and as many as five on the other. Impelled by terror, by gregarious instinct, and by the habit of ranging in line, they "closed in upon Lord George so as to be-smear his overalls with blood from the gory flanks of the nearest intruders, and oblige him to use his sword."—Kinglake Invasion of the Crimea.

GUARD AGAINST VULGARITY.

We especially commend the following extract to the thoughtful study of the young. Nothing is so disgusting and repugnant to the feelings of the noble and the good, as to hear the young or even the old, use profane or low, or vulgar language:

"We would guard the young against the use of every word that is not strictly proper. Use no profane language allude to no sentence that will put to blush the most sensitive. You know not the tendency of habitually using indecent and profane language. It may not be obliterated from your heart. When you grow up you will find at your tongue's end some expression which you would not use for any money. It was once used when you were quite young. By being careful, you will save yourself a deal of mortification and sorrow. Good men have been taken sick and became delirious. In these moments they use the most vile and indecent language imaginable. When informed of it, after restoration to health, they had no idea of the pain they had given their friends, and stated that they had learned and repeated the expression in childhood and though years had passed since they had spoken a bad word, they had been indelibly stamped upon the heart. Think of this, you who are tempted to use improper language, and never disgrace yourselves."

PLAIN SPEECH TO MOTHERS.—Professor Simpson, of Edinburg, who has had large experience in the Medical treatment of mothers and children, gave a public address lately on matters of hygiene. He spoke most plainly to mothers who sent their children to the grave by exposing arms and legs, while other parts of the body are warmly dressed. Mothers, he continued, commit child murder, and then wonder how God could be so unkind as to take away their darling. They not only murder their children, but in his opinion, commit suicide themselves by exposing their own necks to the cold air. It was a puzzle which he could not understand, that women should cut off the top of their dresses and appear with bare bosoms in refined society, while that part of the dress which should protect the heart and lungs, and other vital organs, is trailing in the mud.

Not to speak of health at the present moment, we would remark that the exhibition of a semi nude bust seldom approaches to the classical standard of harmonious proportions of parts and fullness of outline, and is rarely suggestive of beauty and loveliness. The inquisitive observer feels himself quite at a loss as to the precise line of division between the part which fashion claims for exposure and the rest which modesty would conceal. The boundary is too changeable. More ought to be left to the imagination and less to be condemned by good taste. But if mothers and full grown daughters insist on being the victims of fashion, children ought to be exempt from its insane and cruel requirements. What has fashion to do with children, or they with fashion?

A GOOD newspaper is like a sensible and sound-hearted friend, whose appearance on one's threshold gladdens the mind with the promise of a pleasant and profitable hour.

CURRAN was asked by a brother lawyer, "Do you see anything ridiculous in this wig?" "Nothing but the head," was the reply.

GIVE GOD HIS DAY.

Reader do not be a robber. He that steals breaks God's eighth commandment. Above all do not rob God's property. Give God his day.

I do entreat you for your soul's sake, not to profane the Sabbath, but to keep it holy. Do not buy and sell or idle away your time on Sunday. Let not the example of all around you, let not the invitation of companions, let none of these things induce you to violate the settled rule, that God's day shall be given to God.

The Sabbath is one of the greatest blessings which God has given to man. Do not make bad use of this blessing. He that cannot give God his Sunday is unfit for heaven. Heaven is an eternal Sunday. Oh, while you live, give God his day.

Once give over caring for the Sabbath, and in the end you will give over caring for your soul. The steps which lead to this conclusion are easy and regular. Begin with not honoring God's day, and you will soon not honor God's house. Cease to honor God's house, and by and by you will give God no honor at all. Let a man lay the foundation of having no Sabbath, and I am never surprised if he finishes with the topstone of no God. It is a remarkable saying of Judge Hale, "Of all the persons who were convicted of capital crimes while he was upon the bench, he found only a few who would not confess on inquiry, that they began their career of wickedness by a neglect of the Sabbath."

Reader, resolve, that by God's help you will always remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy. Honor it by a regular attendance at some place where the gospel is preached. Settle down under a faithful ministry, and once settled, let your place in church never be empty. Give God his day.—Rev. J. C. Ryle.

TERRIBLE SCENE AT A SCAFFOLD.

A terrible scaffold scene recently took place at Tambow, in Russia. Young Gorski a pupil at the high school of that place, and eighteen years of age, was to be executed for having murdered a family of seven persons. The young criminal was conveyed to the place of execution on a wagon, and was escorted by a company of dragoons. The gallows was surrounded by ten thousand persons. After the doomed lad had alighted from the wagon, the sentence of death was read to him. He was deadly pale, and fainted before the warrant was read through. The executioner then branded him, after he had been restored to consciousness; the boy struggled voiolently and uttered heart rending screams when the red hot iron was applied to his forehead. He was then whipped, receiving about thirty lashes. The executioner thereupon undressed him and wrapped him in a long white blanket, tied his feet together, attached the rope to his neck and drew the blanket over his head. He then lifted him on top of a step ladder, and was about to push him from it, when the Secretary of the Criminal Court stepped forward, and told the executioner to stop. The excitement of the crowed had reached the highest pitch by this time, and it seemed as if all the ten thousand persons around the gallows were holding their breath. The executioner lifted the lad from the step laadder, removed the blanket from his face, which was lived and distorted with fear; and then the Secretary read to him a letter from the Emperor changing his sentence to hard labor for life. The executioner then untied his feet, gave him thirty more lashes—the sentence having ordered that he should receive sixty lashes—and then clad him in the convict dress and chained his legs. He was thereupon taken back to his cell, and two days afterward sent to Siberia.

STRONG MEN.

Strenth of character consists of two things—power of will and power of self restraint. It requires two things, therefore, for its existence—strong feelings and strong command over them. Now we all very often mistake strong feelings, and strong command over them. Now we all very often mistake strong feelings for strong character. A man who bears all before him, before whose frown domestics tremble, and whose burst of fury makes the children of the household quake, because he has his way in all things, we call him a strong man. The truth is, that he is the weak man; it is his passions, that are strong; he mastered by them, is weak. You must measure the strength of a man by the power of feelings he subdues, not by the power of those that subdue him. And hence composure is very often the highest result of strength. Did we ever see a man receive a flagrant injury, and then reply quietly? This is a man spiritually strong. Or did we ever see a man in anguish stand as if carved out of solid rock, mastering himself? or one bearing a hopeless daily trial remain silent and never tell the world what cankered his home peace? That is the strength. He who with strong passion, remains chaste; he who, keenly sensitive, with manly powers of indignation in him, can be provoked and yet restrain himself, and forgive, those are strong men.

A SCHOOL in Massachusetts was under examination, when one of the examiners said:

"If I had a mince pie, and should give three-twelfths to John, three twelfths to Isaac, and should keep half the pie myself, what would there be left?"

There was a profound study among the scholars, but finally one lad held up his hand as a signal that he was ready to answer.

"Well, sir, what will there be left? Speak up loud, so that all can hear,,, said the examiner.

"The plate," shouted the hopeful fellow.

FRIGHTENED BY A GONG.

We have heard a funny story told of a young fellow residing in one of the tobacco growing counties of Virginia, who recently made his first visit to Richmond, the capitol of the "Old Dominion," for the purpose of selling his crop, seeing the sights, and rubbing off some of the rust which his back woods "fetching up" had thrown upon his manners.

He reached Richmond about the middle of the forenoon, and was fortunate in selling his crop at an advantageous rate and almost immediately. Meeting with an old school-fellow—one who had lived in the city long enough to know its ways—he was advised to take up his lodgings at Boyden's, the crack house of the place; and thither he at once went with his baggage. Just before dinner his friend called to see him, and found him comfortably located in a room just at the head of the stairs. It was close upon dinner time.

"Suppose we take something to start an appetite," said the chap who had just come down."

"Agreed," rejoined the city friend, "a glass of wine and bitters for me."

"Let's go down to the bar and get it—dinner's most ready," continued the tobacco-grower.

"We might as well have it up here," was the rejoinder.

"Good lick; but how are we to call for it?"

"Ring that bell there."

"What bell?"

"Pull that rope hanging there."

The young man laid hold of the rope and gave it a jerk, and just at that moment the gong sounded for dinner. Never had he heard such a sound before, and the rumbling crash came upon his ear with a report that stunned him. He staggered back from the rope, raised both hands in horror, and exclaimed:

"Great Jerusalem what a smash? I've broke every piece of crockery in the house! There ain't a whole dish left! You must stick by me, old fellow," addressing his friend, "don't leave me in this scrape, for my whole crop won't half pay the breakage.—What did you tell me to touch that cursed rope for?"

But before his friend, who was all but bursting with laughter, could answer, a servant entered the room with

"Did you ring the bell, sir?"

"Bell? no, d—n your bell; I never touched your bell in my life; what bell? I never saw your bell."

"Somebody rang the bell of this room, that's certain," continued the servant.

"No they didn't. There's nobody here that ever saw a bell"—and then turning to his friend, exclaimed aside, "let's lie him out of it; I shan't have a cent to go home if I pay the entire damage. What do they get such rascally traps as that for, to take folks in from the country."

After a violent fit of laughter, the friend was enabled to explain that it was only the gong sounding for dinner—a simple summons "to walk down to soup," got up on the Chinese plan. They made their way to the dining room, but it was some time before the young tobacco grower could get over the stunning and awful effects of that dreadful gong. "It was a God-send," he said, "that the crash did not turn my hair gray on the spot."

ALL A "SETTING."—Old farmer Gruff was one morning a tugging away with all his might and main at a barrel of apples, which he was endeavoring to get up the cellar stair and calling at the top of his voice for one of his boys to lend him a helping hand, but all in vain. When he had, after an infinite amount of sweating, accomplished the task and just when they were not needed, of course, the boys made their appearance. "Where have you been, and what have you been about, I'd like to know; couldn't you hear me call?" inquired the farmer, in an angry tone, addressing the eldest. "Out in the shop, settin' the saw," replied the youth. "And you Dick?" "Out in the barn settin' the hen." "And you sir?" "Up in granny's room, settin' the clock." And you, young man?" "Up garret settin' the trap." And now, Master Fred, where were you settin'?" asked the old farmer of his youngest progeny, the asperity of his temper somewhat softened by this amusing catalogue of answers. "Come, let's hear." On the doorstep, settin' still," replied the young hopeful seriously. "A remarkable set, I must confess," added the amused sire, dispersing the grinning group with a wave of his hand.

VAIN MAN.—Whilst thou art building castles, the carpenter is building thy coffin. While deceitful influences are gilding thy future prospects, the painter is leisurely putting the varnish upon the casket that is being fitted for thy reception. While thou art striving hard to distinguish thyself among thy fellows, the marble worker is fitting the slab that shall mark thy grave. While you are querying as to the wherewithal you shall be clothed, the materials for your burial suit are upon the tradesman's shelf. You add field to field, and anxiously reach out for more; but go to the graveyard and stake out the lot to which death will soon assign you. "Then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?"

A country doctor being out for a day's shooting, took his errand boy to carry the game bag. Entering a field of turnips, the dog pointed; and the boy, overjoyed at the prospects of his master's success, exclaimed, "there's a covey; if you get near 'em, won't you physic 'em?" "Physic them! you young rascal, what do you mean?" said the doctor. "Why, kill 'em, to be sure," replied the lad.

TO BUSINESS MEN.

We have a few words to say in our own behalf, which we think will be neficial alike to patrons and publisher.

The elections prove that a very large majority of the voters who represent the community that transacts its business in Bedford, are Democrats. Take Bedford township and Bedford borough, the upper end of Snake Spring, the lower end of Colerain, the northern part of Cumberland Valley and the eastern end of Napier, and you have over 650 Democratic voters, whilst in the same region of country, there are not more than 350 Radical voters.—Now, it is generally estimated that there is one voter to every five persons. According to this ratio, these Democratic voters represent 3,250 people whilst the Radical voters represent but 1,750. Hence about two thirds of the people who transact business with the merchants, manufacturers and other tradesmen of Bedford, are Democrats. This being the case, is it not reasonable to conclude that the advertisement of any Bedford merchant or tradesman in the GAZETTE is worth twice as much to the advertiser as it would be if printed in any other paper? It is among Democrats, of course, that our paper finds its principal circulation, and it goes into almost every household in the region of which we speak. We make no boast; we simply state what is a fact. If advertisers choose to address 1,750 people rather than 3,250, it is their affair, not ours. The GAZETTE does not want the patronage of anybody so stupid.

PRESIDENT, OR KING?

The broad and palpable difference between absolutism and democracy, consists, as everybody knows, in the fact that the former is the rule of a single individual, with unlimited sway, over the people who are his subjects, whilst the latter is self-government by the people.

Sometimes, as in Great Britain, only certain prerogatives are allowed the individual ruler, and he is, by the very tenure by which he holds the sceptre, made but a part of the government.

Sometimes, nay in almost every modern instance, government by the people is regulated by a written Constitution, adopted by the people themselves, as in the case of our own country.

We have thus reverted to elementary principles, in order to fix upon the mind of the reader the fact that there is not and cannot be any fundamental distinction between the absolute despotism of Russia and our own republican system, save this: The will of the Czar is the supreme law of Russia; the Constitution is the supreme law of the United States. Now, if Gen. U. S. Grant, as President, sets up his own will instead of and in opposition to the Constitution, he becomes absolute, just as he of Russia is absolute, or, if he substitutes for the terms of the Constitution, what he believes to be "the will of the people," he makes himself an autocrat, for he cannot alter or violate the Constitution, even at the bidding of the majority. The Constitution can be altered only by the concurrent action of three fourths of the States, or through the instrumentality of a popular convention constitutionally convoked.

Gen. Grant will take a solemn oath to maintain and defend the Constitution. If he is the patriot many people think he is, he will fulfil that oath to the very letter.

But here is the rub! He has been willing to assume dictatorship over the people of ten States; will he not extend his dictatorship over the remaining twenty-seven? He has ruled ten millions of people with the bayonet; will he not govern the thirty millions at whose head he will soon stand, by the same process?

Time will answer these questions. But two things are certain. Grant, President, will be a Democrat; Grant, King, will be a Radical.

SO MUCH.

The Radicals will not have a two-thirds vote in the 41st Congress. The Democrats, have elected 83 members, the Radicals 132. So much gained.—Radical legislation may now be checked, at least to some extent. Some of the ablest Democrats in the Union, among them S. S. Cox, James Brooks, D. W. Voorhees, W. S. Holman, M. C. Kerr and C. A. Eldridge, have been elected to this Congress.

WHEN JOHN CESSNA heard that he was beaten 211 in Franklin county, he got the "Grecian Bend" so badly that he has not even yet been able to assume a perpendicular position. It is supposed, however, that his conceit is worse broken than his back, and that he may be able to straighten up when Gov. Geary officially gazettes him a member elect of the next Congress.—Valley Spirit.

ALREADY.

Is it worth our while to remind "Republicans" of what the Democrats prophesied would come to pass in the event of Grant's election? It hardly pays for the waste of ink and paper, to appeal to the treacherous memory or the hardened conscience of such slaves to party as "Republicans" have proved themselves to be; nevertheless, it is our duty so to do, and we shall perform our duty, even toward such sodden asses and contemptible knaves as vote for the destruction of the Constitution and the civil oppression of ten millions of their fellow citizens.

Well, Mr. Republican, we told you before the election, that if Grant were chosen President, the Radicals would claim his election as an endorsement of their doctrines in regard to the Negro.

You did not believe us.

Or, if you did believe us, you voted a lie, for you declared that you would not vote for Negro Suffrage.

Now, where are you? Your leading newspapers already clamor for the enfranchisement of the blacks in all the States. Forney's Press now says you must give the negroes the ballot every where. You have elected Grant and you have forced Negro Suffrage upon Pennsylvania, unless you go to work and check your own leaders.

Did we deceive you? Was our prediction not true? Come, now, if you have any manhood left within you, acknowledge that your party has sold you again, as it has every time it got a new lease of power.

DEMOCRATS of Bedford county! You have done nobly; a glorious future is before you; slacken not your efforts in the cause you love. "It is a long lane that has no turn," and there is a turn in the Radical lane which will be reached before long. "Hope springs eternal in the human breast!"

WE feel it our duty to compliment the Democrats of Monroe, Napier, Schellsburg, Saxton and Woodberry borough, on the handsome gains made in their districts over the October election. Well done, friends, and thank you for your devotion to principle.

JOHN CESSNA is said to be "tearing mad" because he run behing the Radical candidate for Surveyor in Bedford county. We advise him to take "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," which "reduces inflammation, cures wind colic and corrects acidity."—Valley Spirit.

THE IRREPRESSIBLE.—The Essex (Mass) district has repudiated with indignant emphasis the aspirations of Mr. Dana, a gentleman of decorum and virtue, to be its representative man, and by a vote of ten to one proclaimed that the irrepressible Butler is the true type of its ideas and tastes. It was to no purpose that the whole republican press of Boston, and the New York Times, Nation and Post sought to keep Butler bottled up; that Grant was quoted against him, and that Kilpatrick made a savage raid into his lines, vainly seeking to emulate his own energy and uncleanness of vituperation. Butler has come out of his bottle with the explosive force of an earthquake, and the Essex district is in a blaze of exultation over the failure of the audacious experiment to secure an exponent of what is creditable and moderate to represent it.

Prince Alfred, of England, has started in a steamship to make a voyage around the world. The voyage will consume two years' time, if is said, and perhaps three.

Causes of our Indian Wars.

It is not always easy to get satisfactory evidence upon the question as to who is to blame, the white man or the Indian, for the constantly recurring difficulties and wars between them. Perhaps, however, there is no one more competent, by military experience and personal observation, to form an intelligent opinion of that question than General Sherman, and he has expressed the belief that the uniform injustice to the Indians, and the many outrages perpetrated against them by the whites have been the chief causes of the wars which have caused the loss of many thousands of lives and millions of treasure. A meeting was lately held in New York upon the subject, at which a memorial to Congress was adopted, which says:

Among the chief causes of these wars, which have entitled the loss of many lives and been the pretext upon which the people of the United States have been robbed of millions of hard earned treasure, we enumerate the following:

1. The dissatisfaction of the Indians is consequence of having sometimes been betrayed into the cession of good lands by pretended treaties.

2. The constant failure of the government to fulfill in good faith its treaty obligations with the tribes.

3. The frequent and unprovoked outrages and murders of Indians by soldiers and white citizens.

4. The impossibility of obtaining justice in local courts, or of punishing white criminals, for the reason that the testimony of Indians is not allowed in those courts.

5. The unlawful occupation, by the whites, of lands not ceded nor treated for.

6. The shameful fact, that of all the appropriations made by Congress for their benefit, but a small part ever reaches them.

At the same meeting Bishop Whipple, of the Episcopal Church in Minnesota, made a speech and a report, which latter, the meeting, on motion of Mr. Peter Cooper, resolved to petition Congress to allow Bishop Whipple to read before them.

Bishop Whipple declared in his speech that the treaties made with the Indians, though ostensibly for their civilization, are merely means to fill the pockets of plunderers, and the conduct of the employers of the government, who are often tempted to steal by the small pay they receive, drives the Indians to war. The Bishop then spoke of the recent war, for which he thought the Indians had ample grounds, and which would have been considered so by every civilized people on the earth. Not only their lands, but their annuities, were taken away, their wives and daughters outraged, and other direct wrongs inflicted on them. The speaker contended that the Indian Bureau must be reformed and a cabinet officer put at the head of it; all the employees to be men of good moral character, and the peace commission enlarged by adding to it the best men in the country to carry out that object. Bishop Kemper, of Wisconsin, a venerable man, eighty years of age, said that the remnant of the famous Six Nations, removed from the State of New York many years ago, were placed on a reserve in his diocese, and it was gratifying to perceive how they had improved in civilization and increased in numbers. They lived, like the whites, in houses, and many of them were Christians, over one hundred being communicants. Yet still the white man pursued them, and already the demand for their lands was so clamorous that they were likely to succumb to the wornout politicians, who, for the most part, filled the positions of Indian agents. Statements like these, coming from impartial and well-informed sources, call for thorough investigation by Congress and a reform of existing abuses. Thus much is due, if not to the public conscience, which may or may not trouble itself about alleged oppressions of the weak, at least to the public treasury, which ought to be saved the drain of these Indian wars, if they can be honorably avoided.—Balt. Sun.

MORE FRUITS COMING.

The very reverend Henry Ward Beecher, who is writing the Life of Christ, and supposes himself imbued with a spirit which fits him for that holy task, has just given some evidence on that point. The very reverend Henry made a politico-religious speech in Boston last week, and declared that "the work of his party must go on, cost what it may, even at the sacrifice of lives by the thousands or tens of thousands. Blood is cheap."

Well and good, most reverend and holy butcher; if that should turn out the game that you and your political confrees desire to play, the Democracy are able to take a hand at it, and when the first spark is kindled, woe unto you and yours in the North. We thank you for the threat. You cannot say that you did not invite the carnage, with the Bible in one hand, and the sword in the other, bellowed blood! blood! more blood! What a precious follower of the meek and lowly Saviour, who taught "peace on earth, good will to men!"—Day Book.

Important Decision.

An important decision has just been rendered by the New York Court of appeals between the American Mutual Life insurance Company and the widow of an assured party. The payment of the insurance was refused on the ground that her husband had invalidated his policy by committing suicide. This Company also attempted to prove that the insured man was an atheist or infidel, and therefore that the suicide was intentional, the deceased not having the fear of God before him; but the court ruled out this as irrelevant, and held that in an action to recover for an insurance upon the life of the deceased, it is not competent to inquire into his religious faith with a view of influencing the question whether, in such case, death was occasioned by an intent of self-destruction or of accident. The Court of Appeals therefore affirmed the judgment of the lower court by giving judgment for the respondent; thus virtually establishing the principle that a life insurance policy is not of necessity invalidated by the suicide of the insured person.

The Late Disastrous Floods in Switzerland.—An Appeal for Relief.

We have received from Mr. John Hitch, Political Agent and Consul General of Switzerland, at Washington, a circular describing the recent unparalleled calamity which has befallen a large portion of Switzerland, and invoking the aid of the press in behalf of measures for the relief of the surviving victims of the disaster.

The cantons of Tessin, Valois, Grisons, St. Gall and Uri, have been devastated. "On the 27th of September rain commenced to fall in torrents along the northern and southern slopes of the Alps, and continued to decend, with but little intermission for eight days. During all this time a powerful southwind raged furiously amid the masses of snow and ice which had lain undisturbed for centuries in their inaccessible Alpine strong holds. Every mountain rivulet swelled into a rushing stream, every stream into a torrent, carrying appalling destruction in its course. The rivers of Tessin, the Rhone, the Reuss, the Rhine and the Inn, in their relentless power obliterated many of the choicest beauties of nature, impoverished thousands of families and hurried hundreds to a watery grave.

"Whole forests, vineyards and meadows stacked with grain, have disappeared, and in many places not a vestige of roads, bridges and fences is left; houses, mills and factories are torn from their foundations, and even cemeteries and charnal houses have been invaded, and thousands of our fellowbeings are reduced to abject poverty. Along the Rhine village upon village lies half burried in mud and debris, and every article of bedding and wearing apparel has either been swept away or rendered useless in houses where comfort and even plenty reigned, while their verdant meadows, productive orchards and beautiful gardens are one mass of grayish mud. Sixty millions of francs will fall far short of the loss sustained."

After this vivid description of a disaster which must be classed with the tornadoes, the volcanic eruptions, the earthquakes, and other terrible convulsions of nature which have but lately spread consternation, misery and death among the inhabitants of both hemispheres, Mr. Hitz details the generous and speedy measures of relief adopted by the federal government and the different cantons of Switzerland, as well as by the rulers and the people of adjacent countries, and earnestly appeals to the numerous Swiss emigrants who have settled in the United States, and to Americans who are freinds of Switzerland, to aid in relieving the sufferers.

How Radical Promises are Verified.

Those who were silly enough to believe the Radical assertion, made prior to the election, that with Grant's success would come such a happy time in business as the country has not seen for half a century, have, we presume, learned to know the value of promises from such a source. To-day the stringency in the money market is more severe than it has been for years. Government securities have declined at the following ruinous rates, as compared with the quotations three days since:

"The long sixes and the 'policies' have fallen off three per cent; the old five-twenties, three eighths; those of 1864, two and three eighths; of 1865, two and a half; of 1867, three and a quarter; of 1868 two and seven eighths, and the ten-forties two per cent."

A panic prevails, most sweeping in its character, and which threatens to involve thousands of busines men in ruin. We advert to this fact in no spirit of congratulation, nor with a desire to aggravate the evil but simply to show how egregiously trusting men have been deceived by Radical promises, and upon what foundation were based the assurances given the people, that with Grant's election would come prosperity as well as peace.—Evening Herald.

Prisoners of War.

"In reply to a resolution of the House of Representatives," says the Washington Union, "calling upon the Secretary of War for the number of prisoners of either side held, and that died during the war, he makes the following report: Number of Federal prisoners South, 260,940, number of Confederate prisoners, North, 200,000; number of Federal prisoners died, 22,596; number of Confederate prisoners died, 26,435." Upon this the Petersburg Index says:

"We find the above paragraph in the Washington Union, of Tuesday evening and take it for granted that the editor speaks from the record. What a commentary these simple, severe statistics present on the loyal falsehoods of Congressional buncombe and Harper's Journal of Civil and (political) Leisation! After all the 'barbarities,' of Andersonville and Salisbury; after all the hired perjury with which Wirz was murdered; with all the unbounded appliances for health, comfort and cure which the humane, Christian enlightened and civilized North possessed; with all the utterly infamous character of Washington official testimony where 'rebels' were concerned; with every motive for, with constant practice of, and unblushing notoriety in falsifying records to suit their case, what are the facts? Out of 261,000 Union prisoners, 22,500 died. Out of 200,000 Confederate prisoners 26,500 died. The Union prisoners exceeded the Confederate prisoners sixty-one thousand; yet the deaths of Union prisoners fell below those of confederate prisoners six-thousand. Two 'Yankee' prisoners died out of every twenty-three in Southern pens. Two 'Rebel' prisoners died out out of every fifteen in Northern pens. Put that in your moral pipes, ye whited sepulchres."

THE NEW YORK MUSICAL GAZETTE, edited by Theodore F. Seward, is issued on the first of each month. Each number contains twelve quarto pages, four of which (equal to eight 8vo. pages) are filled with Music. The Gazette is prepared with a view to meet the wants of the many rather than of any select few, aiming to give from month to month whatever is of most interest either in news, history, recreation, or instruction. The facilities of its publishers enable them to enlist the best musical talent in the country in the preparation of its pages, and they design to make it a popular journal, which will be interesting and useful to every one having any interest in music. The music is of a varied character and mostly original, including vocal and instrumental, sacred and secular, but is more especially adapted to meet the wants of choirs, singing-schools and musical societies throughout the country. One copy, per annum, one dollar; Five copies, Four dollars; Ten copies, Seven dollars. Terms always in advance.

BALLOU'S MONTHLY MAGAZINE.—The December number of this popular Magazine is received. We find it filled with that charming variety of illustration and interesting letter-press so well calculated to keep it at the head of the cheap Magazines of the country. Shillaber treats us to one of his most musical illustrated poems; William L. Williams gives the young folks an exciting story, while Jane G. Austin, James Franklin Pitts, Catharine Earnshaw, W. H. Marcy N. P. Darling and several other writers of more or less note furnish each a capital story or poem. The humorous pictures are uncommonly good.

The publishers announce for 1869 a new seriel by the charming Miss Camilla Willian, also an original story for boys and girls, to run through the year, by Horatio Alger, Jr., one of the most popular writers for the young.—They also promise increased attractions in stories and illustrations, for the coming year over those of any previous one. It is sent to subscribers at $1.50 per year, or in clubs for $1.25. Elliott, Thomes & Talbot, Publishers, Boston, Mass.

HEARTH AND HOME—a Rural and Family Paper—will be issued by Pettengill, Bates & Co., on or before the first of January next, and will be devoted to all that pertains to Country Life, in its broadest sense, will be neither partizan nor sectarian. From the high reputation of the proprietors, and large corps of associate editors, this publication will be worth a place in every household in the land.

How often do we hear, as though from the grave, a voice reproaching us for neglected opportunities. The bright boy suddenly recalled from college—the young lady compelled to arrest her education—the homestead sold under the hammer of the sheriff—the hearthstone where happiness and comfort dwelt, desolate from the absence of the loved protector, and dreary by the presence of unwonted and unnecessary poverty. Death may come in a moment to the fairest and most promising life, and with or without it, pecuniary disaster. Yet all this might have been avoided had the father taken a small risk in a company like the National Life Insurance Company, which our readers will find advertised in another column. Read the scheme of this Company, and remember that the men who plan it, and who now manage the business, are among the most honorable, the most enterprising, and the most widely-known in America. At its head we find Mr. Jay Cooke—the manager of the great national loans—a man whose genius was almost as useful in suppressing rebellion as those who controlled great armies. A dollar invested with these men is as safe as though it were locked in the innermost vault of the Bank of England. The Company has One Million of Dollars fully paid in. It is a National Company. It offers a large security and proposes low rates of premiums. It furnishes larger insurances than other companies, and represents the fullest results of the science of Life Insurance. One of its features is especially attractive. We mean that by which one-tenth of the policy is paid annually, after a term of years. This is not only an insurance, but an annuity—income during life and support to the family after death.

110 LISPENARD ST.,
NEW YORK, OCTOBER 13, 1867.

DEAR SIR:—It is with much pleasure that I say to you that I consider the Plantation Bitters of untold value. In the fall of 1867 I was taken with Chills and Fever, with the most severe pains in my chest and head. It was with great difficulty that I could breathe. My lungs were greatly distressed, and there was severe pain in my right side, by spells. I could hardly get up from my bed. I called a Doctor, who attended me all winter without the least benefit. About the first of August I commenced using your Plantation Bitters—a wine-glass full three times a day—and have used it most of the time since, and I am now well and strong, able to do all my own work and the care of a large family. Yours, &c., SUSAN WILSON.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

S. D. & H. W. SMITH'S AMERICAN ORGANS.—All our leading musicians are unanimous in their testimony relative to the excellence of the fine musical merits of these beautiful and popular instruments, manufactured by Messrs. Smith, of Boston. Their quality of tone is much admired, being resonant like the pipe organ, full and sweet, containing rich and expressive variety for Home music, and great depth and volume of tone for churches, Sabbath schools, &c. The manual sub bass has remarkable strength, and is truly organ-like in effect, excelling in this respect all other reed organs, while the addition of the super-octave coupler, gives double the power of ordinary instruments.—Congregationalist.

A PREDICTION CONCERNING GEN. GRANT.—In a speech made last week at Crestline, Ohio, Mr. Vallandigham said:

"Now, my republican friends, I have not said anything against Gen. Grant in this campaign. I have not done it for—a purpose. If he is fit to be President, long before his term expires I will be found supporting him, honestly and cordially, against the leaders of the party which expects to elect him in November. [Loud cheers.] And you will have no right to cry out 'traitor' against him; you will have no right to talk about his Tylerizing, or his Fillmoreizing, or his Johnsonizing you. You nominated him in Chicago; you put a platform—something called a platform—into his hand; you asked him for an acceptance of it, and he accepted, and I dare say he would have accepted the democratic nomination too. [Laughter.] But he took care in his letter of acceptance to say that he would not proclaim any policy. He did not consider it advisable to do so in advance of the election—to say what he would do when he was elected. Now, I pray you to remember that I told you on this 26th of October, that Gen. Grant will reject the mad, fanatical, revolutionary radical leaders of the organization which put him forward, if he proves true to the constitution and the Union of our fathers. [Loud cheers.] If he will restore to this government its harmony, and give back to the people their rights, North and South, I will be found among his cordial supporters, because I will be found in opposition to the radical party."

YOUNG LADIES BEWARE.—The New York Sun is severe on what it calls the silly fashion which our young ladies sometimes employ in writing their Christian names. To illustrate:

"A detailed report of a fashionable wedding conveys the information that a young gentleman who bears the noble name of Lionel has just been united in wedlock to a lovely maiden named Jennie, and that among the bridesmaids on the interesting occasion three were named respectively, Lettie, Annie and Gertie. The ladies were all dressed in the height of the fashion, and some of the most popular gems from Offenbach's operas were performed. The young ladies who thus give to public notoriety the pet names conferred on them while they yet bloomed in the seclusion of the nursery, do not mean, of course, to be guilty of vulgarity and impertinence, but they are; and we speak of their fault because it is so general, especially among ignorant and thoughtless people. It is very proper for Lionel to address his bride by the sweet, affectionate appellation of Jennie, but that is a privilege of his situation to which the general public can not be admitted without a violation of propriety.—When the name of the young woman comes to be printed on her visiting card or in a newspaper, it should be done decorously and simply as Jane. So of her bridesmaids; their right names are Letitia, Anne and Gertrude, and it is nobody's business by what tender abbreviations and expansions of those appelatives they may be named by their mothers or their future husbands."

PEACE.—"There are certain places where politics should not be allowed to enter," says Mrs. Grundy, "and the home or local department of a country newspaper is one them." You are right, old woman, but you'll forgive us "just this once." As locals are scarce, our thoughts naturally wonder over the great political contest just closed. We are reminded of the criminations and recriminations, the irritants and counter-irritants made use of by the parties respectively battling for the mastery; the vituperation and slang heaped upon opposing candidates, and the dire calamities that were sure to be brought upon our beloved country in the event of the triumph of either party! How could the electors choose? Seymour and Blair were to bring War and Desolation; Grant and Colfax, Peace and Tranquility. After five years of sanguinary strife, such as the world never before beheld, brought about, too, by a radical idea peculiar to our section of this country, the people of the whole land naturally yearned for peace. This the Radicals promised them in wholesale abundance. The effect was to be instantaneous. From the moment the electric wires flashed the intelligence of the success of their candidates throughout the length and breadth of this land, a new era was to be dated. Peace was to grow up of a night like a mushroom, or cover the land over like the dew of a morning, or its white winged messenger was to shower it copiously upon the people as the manna was showered upon the hungry Israelites. Hatred, malice, ill-will and all the bad qualities of our nature were to be banished from the heart of man. This "tickled the fancies" of the timid, while anything short of this, frightened the children, and threw old women in hysterics.

This was the campaign carried with success by the Radicals. But let us look at the sequel. Seymour and Blair, who, according to Radical teachings, were the synonyms of War and all the evils that could befall us as a nation, are defeated. Grant and Colfax, who were to bring unheard of blessings to this people; peace and prosperity not for their day and generation alone but for all time to come, are elevated to lofty stations, yet the promised magic effect which their presence was to bring about is not realized. Human nature is the same now as it was before the election. Our neighbors are as radical as ever, and delight in calling their political opponents all the ill names they can find in the dictionary of slang. The negroes of Georgia and elsewhere in the South, are still arming and shooting down their neighbors because they are white. Murder, theft, robbery and arson are still abroad in the land. Peace has not come. The oil has not been poured upon the troubled waters. When will this people become wise? When will passion and prejudice give way to reason and justice? Let us all pray—that we may have Peace.

BARN BURNED.—On last Sunday evening the barn af Mr. Joseph Fisher, of Cumberland Valley tp., was entirely consumed by fire. The barn was a new one and filled with the summer's crop. The Saturday before Mr. Fisher had made preparations to commence threshing his grain the following Monday, when some fiend with the torch of the incendiary set fire to the building. The scoundrel has been tracked, and we hope he may be caught and severely punished. We understand there was a small insurance on the building.

SUDDEN DEATHS.—Mr. John Bowers, of Napier township, was found dead in his bed last Saturday morning. He was over seventy years of age.

Mr. Andrew Horn, an old and highly respectable citizen of St Clair township died very suddenly one day last week. He had been at church, and, feeling unwell, walked outside the building where he expired before any of his friends inside could come to his assistance.

Is your property insured? If not go at once to the Bedford Insurance Agency and take out a policy against accidents by fire. None but good Companies represented. Jno. G. Fisher, Agent.

PITTSBURG AND CONNELLSVILLE RAILROAD—The Entire Line Under Contract.—It gives us pleasure to be able to state to our readers that the graduation, masonry and ballast upon the following sections of the Pittsburg and Connellsville railroad have been allotted by the president and directors of the company to the parties named below in connection with the same, viz: To Alexander & Ruff, sections 50, 60, 61, 62, 63, 64, 65, 66, 73, 74, 76, 80, 81, 82, 83, 84, 85, 86, 87; to Jas. H. Hoblitzell & Bro., sections 88, 89, 90, 91, 92; to John C. Howley & Co., section 106; to McCue & Hoover, sections 110, 112; to P. T. Collins & Co., sections 115, 116, 117, 122, 133; to J. M. Campbell & Bro., sections 118, 119, 160; to John Humbird, sections 128, 129, to John C. Brodhead & Co., sections 140. Sections 59 to 87, inclusive, embrace that part of the road lying west of Ursina east of Connellsville. Sections 88 to 140 embrace that part of the road lying east of Ursina, extending to Cumberland. Section 106 takes in the newly laid-out town of Garrett. Some of the contractors are already on their portions of the line making preparations for commencing work at once, and the road will be in running order within two years.—Somerset Democrat, Oct. 21.

WILD TURKEYS.—This game is much more plenty this season than it has been for some years. Almost every day we hear of some modern Nimrod bringing home a number of these birds as trophies of his skill as a marksman. The "local" had the pleasure of helping to stow away the remains of a noble old gobbler, at the house of a friend, the other day, and he can attest to the fact that, to an epicurian, a barbarian gobbler, properly "done up," is far more delicious than one of the civilized tribe.

THAT'S SO.—when two ladies meet in the street, they first talk of their dresses, their neighbors', and their own virtues, the latest engagements, and finish off with a grist of common place talk as long as Trinity church spire. When two gentlemen meet, they talk of their aching heads, the virtues of plain soda water, "the devilish good time last night," the streaks and angularities of these lady acquaintances, the gay walking pictures about town, horses, dominoes, the merits of liquor, ladies, cigars, what's up and seven up.

TERRIBLE ACCIDENT.—On Tuesday morning last a terrible accident occurred on the railroad in the western section of this city near where the road crosses Fayette street. Three German laborers, employees on the road, named Ogley, Dier and Diffenbaugh, early in the morning were walking on the track on the way to their work, when they saw a train approaching them. They stepped then to the other track in order to let it pass, when at that moment the regulating engine of the wharf came upon them from the opposite direction and knocked them down and ran over the entire party, killing two of them outright and wounding the other so badly that he died shortly afterwards.—Cumberland (Md.) Tel.

SAD ACCIDENT.—Last week a son of Mr. Daniel Bayer, of South Woodberry township, was almost instantly killed by being caught by the tumbling shaft of a threshing machine, over which he was about to step. His legs and arms were broken and crushed in a horrible manner. He survived the terrible accident but a few moments.

WESTERN PORK TRADE.—The Cincinnati Price Current of Wednesday says: "The pork season has commenced, and many packers have been cutting hogs, contracted for some time back, but the receipts have not been large enough to furnish all the houses to a sufficient extent to cut. For the past week the total receipts do not exceed seven thousand head. The weather during the first three days of the week was too warm to cure with safety, but since Saturday the temperature has been low enough, and the demand for hogs has been sharp at about $9 50 to $9 75 net.

VICES OF AMERICANS.—A recent medical writer states that the vices of the American character may be briefly summed up as follows: 1st. An inordinate passion for riches. 2d. Overwork of mind and body in the pursuit of business. 3d. Undue hurry and excitement in all the affairs of life. 4th. Intemperance in eating, drinking and smoking. 5th. A general disregard of the true laws of life and health.

THE King of Bavaria, kindly permitted Doct. J. C. Ayer to have a copy taken of Rauch's celebrated colossal statue of Victory, which belongs to the Bavarian crown and stands at the entrance of the Royal Palace at Munich. The Doctor had it cast in bronze, and has presented it to the City of Lowell, where it stands in the Park and symbolizes the triumphs of both freedom and medicine. Her manufactures are the pride of Lowell, and foremost among them Ayer's medicines make her name gratefully remembered by the unnumbered multitude who are cured by them of afflicting and often dangerous diseases.—Boston Journal.

BITTER CORDIAL

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results. It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

ST. LOUIS and IRON MOUNTAIN RAILROAD COMPANY'S Seven per cent. First Mortgage Bonds, February and August Coupons. The earnings of the completed road to Pilot Knob are now more than the interest on the entire mortgage. The proceeds of these bonds are adding to the security every day. Over $8,000,000 have been spent on the property, and not over $2,000,000 of bonds issued thus far. The constantly increasing traffic of carrying ore, with the prospect of controling all the travel from St. Louis to the Southern States, insures an enormous revenue. The Directors own 8-10 of the stock for investment, and are interested to enrich the property as well as to economize its expenses.

THOS. ALLEN, President, St. Louis, Mo.

We, the undersigned, cordially recommend these seven per cent. mortgage bonds, of the St. Louis and Iron Mountain Railroad, as a good security. The revenue of the road will be large, and the administration of the affairs of the Company is in capable and experienced hands, and is entitled to the greatest confidence of the public.

OUR NEW FAMILY
SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S CELEBRATED ESSAY on the radical cure (without medicine) of SPERMATORRHŒA, or Seminal Weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Physical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriages, etc.; also, CONSUMPTION, EPILEPSY and FITS, induced by self-indulgence or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers,

AYER'S
HAIR VIGOR,
FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition. We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or GREEN SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause it.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.

Miscellaneous.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL,

For Diseases of the Throat and Lungs, such as Coughs, Colds, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis, Asthma, and Consumption.

Probably never before in the whole history of medicine, has anything won so widely and so deeply upon the confidence of mankind, as this excellent remedy for pulmonary complaints. Through a long series of years, and among most of the races of men it has risen higher and higher in their estimation, as it has become better known. Its uniform character and power to cure the various affections of the lungs and throat, have made it known as a reliable protector against them. While adapted to milder forms of disease and to young children, it is at the same time the most effectual remedy that can be given for incipient consumption, and the dangerous affections of the throat and lungs. As a provision against sudden attacks of Croup, it should be kept on hand in every family, and indeed as all are sometime subject to colds and coughs, all should be provided with this antidote for them.

Although settled Consumption is thought incurable, still great numbers of cases where this disease seemed settled, have been completely cured, and the patient restored to sound health by the Cherry Pectoral. So complete is its mastery over the disorders of the Lungs and Throat, that the most obstinate of them yield to it. When nothing else could reach them, under the Cherry Pectoral they subside and disappear.

Singers and public Speakers find great protection from it.

Asthma is always relieved and often wholly cured by it.

Bronchitis is generally cured by taking the Cherry Pectoral in small and frequent doses.

So generally are its virtues known that we need not publish the certificates of them here, or to more than assure the public that its qualities are fully maintained.

AYER'S AGUE CURE,

For Fever and Ague, Intermittent Fever, Chill Fever, Remittent Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical or Bilious Fever, &c., and indeed all the affections which arise from malarious, marsh, or miasmatic poisons.

As its name implies it does Cure, and does not fail. Containing neither Arsenic, Quinine, Bismuth, Zinc, nor any other mineral or poisonous substance whatever, it in no wise injures any patient. The number and importance of its cures in the ague districts, are literally beyond account, and we believe without a parallel in the history of Ague medicine. Our pride is gratified by the acknowledgments we receive of the radical cures effected in obstinate cases, and where other remedies had wholly failed.

Unacclimated persons, either resident in, or traveling through miasmatic localities, will be protected by taking the AGUE CURE daily.

For Liver Complaints, arising from torpidity of the Liver, it is an excellent remedy, stimulating the Liver into healthy activity.

For Bilious Disorders and Liver Complaints, it is an excellent remedy, producing many truly remarkable cures, where other medicines had failed.

Prepared by DR. J. C. AYER & Co., Practical and Analytical Chemists, Lowell, Mass., and sold all round the world.
